2021–2022 Statement—Dependent Support

To process your 2021-2022 financial aid application, federal regulations require you to certify that you provided a minimum level of 50% support for your children or legal dependent(s), now and through June 30, 2022 and will continue to provide support during the 2021–2022 school year. Support could include any of the following: payments for housing, food, clothing or child support payments, or any other expenditure for the children or dependent(s). If you are an expectant parent, you may include the child as a dependent for the 2021-2022 year.

Please provide documentation for the following where applicable:

- Documentation of pregnancy from a physician
- Documentation of legal guardianship from court documents

I did and will provide 50% of the support for my children or legal dependent(s).

List dependents below:

Children or Legal Dependent Name	Social Security Number	Age

I did not and will not provide 50% of the support for my children or legal dependent(s). If you mark this box, please update your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to reflect No—I do not have dependents.

I certify that all of the information reported above is accurate to the best of my knowledge.
